REGULATION No. I OF 1899.

(PASSED ON THE 25TH DAY OF MARCH 1899.)

A Regulation to assimilate the law relating to Post Offices in Mysore to that which is from time to time in force in British India.

Preamble. Whereas it is expedient to make better provision for the efficient working of the British Postal Department in the territories of Mysore; Her Highness the Maharani-Regent is pleased to enact as follows:—

Commencement. 1. This Regulation shall come into force from the date of the passing thereof.

Repeal. 2. Regulation II of 1895 is hereby repealed.

Offenders in Mysore against the Postal law liable to punishment provided by the Indian Post Office Act and rules and orders thereunder. 3. Every person who, within the territories of Mysore, commits or omits to do an act which, if committed or omitted to be done by him in British India, would render him liable to punishment under the provisions of the Indian Post Office Act, VI of 1898, or of rules or orders having the force of law issued thereunder by the Government of India, shall be liable to the punishment provided by the said Act or rules or orders.

Liability of offenders to be tried and punished in Mysore as in British India. 4. Every person liable to punishment under the foregoing section shall be liable to be tried and punished within the territories of Mysore in the same manner as he would have been liable to be tried and punished if the act had been committed or omitted as aforesaid within British India:

Provided that a European British subject so liable shall be tried in accordance with the law relating to the trial of European British subjects for offences committed in the territories of Mysore.

Government and its servants to be protected in Mysore as in British India, and the British Postal law to apply also to Mysore. 5. The protection accorded to Government and its servants in the discharge of their duty under the Post Office Act of British India shall be equally accorded in the territories of Mysore, and the law of British India for the regulation of Post Offices as well as rules and orders having the force of law in British India, shall be deemed to apply to the territories of Mysore so far as they may be suitable.
